

Determine if you should use 'you're' or 'your' in the following sentences.

Answers

Remember:

- You're is an abbreviation meaning 'You are'.

You're going to be late.

- Your is used to show possession.

Don't forget your backpack.

- _____ going to get in trouble if you show up late.
- Are you wearing _____ glasses?
- What is _____ favorite food?
- When _____ walking to school, make sure to be careful.
- _____ mom bakes the best brownies!
- When is _____ bedtime?
- I heard _____ going to your Grandma's house this summer.
- You got _____ shoes all muddy didn't you?
- I can't believe you broke _____ camera!
- What is _____ state's capital?
- _____ hair looks much better blonde.
- Is that _____ dog barking?
- When _____ playing games, make sure to take breaks.
- _____ brother is taking us to the mall, right?
- _____ supposed to mow the lawn before you can play games.

- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____

Determine if you should use 'you're' or 'your' in the following sentences.

Remember:

- You're is an abbreviation meaning 'You are'.

You're going to be late.

- Your is used to show possession.

Don't forget your backpack.

- _____ going to get in trouble if you show up late.
- Are you wearing _____ glasses?
- What is _____ favorite food?
- When _____ walking to school, make sure to be careful.
- _____ mom bakes the best brownies!
- When is _____ bedtime?
- I heard _____ going to your Grandma's house this summer.
- You got _____ shoes all muddy didn't you?
- I can't believe you broke _____ camera!
- What is _____ state's capital?
- _____ hair looks much better blonde.
- Is that _____ dog barking?
- When _____ playing games, make sure to take breaks.
- _____ brother is taking us to the mall, right?
- _____ supposed to mow the lawn before you can play games.

Answers

- you're
- your
- your
- you're
- your
- your
- you're
- your
- your
- your
- your
- your
- you're
- your
- you're